

Good Reason Not to Wear a Ring When Officiating

A good lesson here for those of us who wear our wedding band when refing as well as closing the doors to the penalty box when players are inside the box. You can guess what happened to this linesman.

